To Palma Nova beach, where I swam, and E., still under the weather, read. We lunched there on giant shrimps, omelets and white wine. Made a short tour of the coast, and saw another [redacted] attractive sandy beach for future reference.

Tonight we went to Palma and met Carmen, Colette, the de Fleurieus, and Mademoiselle de Margerie at the Café Fo[illegible]entor. Afterwards we all dined together in the garden of the Hotel Patio -- one of the best meals I've ever tasted.

Carmen was irresistibly amusing. A torrent of charming gestures, actions and words unceasingly flow from her.
